

Celebrate Your Love

Words & Music by Mike R. Schuster

We come to Celebrate and share Your love
We want to Tell the world of all You've done
Of how You Made the sacrifice that set us free
We come to Thank You for the gifts You give
We want to Share Your blessings as we live in You we Raise our hands to You and we agree:

We praise the One who set us free
You gave Your life upon a tree
So we could live eternally
And celebrate Your love
We'll worship You for all our days;
Live our lives in ceaseless praise
And serve You Lord in all our ways
We celebrate Your love

And so we Praise You for the open doors
And Lord we Know You have good things in store
For those who Step out now in faith and just believe
And so we Trust You for what lies ahead
And Lord we Pray You'll be our daily bread
We want to Honor You with all that we receive

CHORUS

We love you; and Lord, we'll serve You.
We don't deserve You; or Your love.
