

Nobody Loves Me Like You

Music & Lyrics by
Jennifer Jade Kerr
& Mike R Schuster

In the beginning You were; and in the end You will be
You created Your children, and in Your Son made us free
Though I walk in redemption I stray from the light
You seek me out in the darkness and draw me to Your side

Nobody loves me like You
Nobody loves me like You
Love that never depends on a thing that I do
No, nobody loves me like You

I long for perfect acceptance, You never turn away
I need to trust in a promise - You do everything You say
I have had my own failings, even though I've tried
What other loves try to offer, only You provide

CHORUS

A love as deep as the sky is wide
A love that bled, a love that died
A love that rose again, with me in mind

CHORUS

Nobody loves me like You
Nobody loves me like You
Love that never depends on a thing that I do
Love that walks right beside me in all I go through
Though I don't understand it, I know that it's true
No, nobody loves me, nobody loves me,
Nobody loves me... like You
